Dear Parents

Reading books other than curricular books should become a habit among our children. It can become a habit only with regular supply of interesting and attractive books which present the readers with diverse tastes, well thought out opinions witty with humour and a curious mix of stories. Champak a magazine for children from Delhi Press fulfills our mission of education and invigorating our pupils towards developing into responsible citizens of our civil society. The signature style of Champak is its stories based on jungle characters that usually carry strong moral messages. The school wishes to introduce this magazine for classes II and III in English which is fortnightly. The annual subscription of this is `200/-(discounted amount).The children will automatically become a member of the ‘CHAMPAK CHEEKU CLUB’. Kindly cooperate in this Endeavour and encourage your child to become a member of this club. The last date for depositing the money is 19th Oct.2011.
