

Investiture Ceremony

SR DAV Public school, Dayanand Vihar held one of the most significant events for the school and also a defining moment in a student's life –the Investiture Ceremony. In a solemn ceremony conducted on the 19th July 2011 the new prefect body was sworn in.

The ceremony commenced with the Principal Mrs Renu Laroia administering the oath to the new Head-boy Anmol Jassal and Head –girl Vidushi Gupta .The pledge resounded unmistakably as each prefect repeated the words with great humility and honour.

This was followed by the handing over the responsibilities to the new prefect body by Jaskaran Singh and Prachi Vashishth , Head – boy and Head – girl 2010-'11. The new prefects took their places on the podium with a sense of pride and responsibility. In her address the Principal stressed upon dignity, honour, and selfless service, reminding the prefects that it's not so much about authority as it is about responsibility. She expressed her hope in the newly elected Student Council that they will carry the honour and progress of the institution to greater heights.

